

This comment is in regards to the Indiana No Phone Solicitation law. This law has been one of the greatest laws that has ever been enacted. There was nothing worse than those unwanted phone calls that woke you from your rest, interfered with family time, got you up from the dinner table and yes, even out of the shower to answer that phone in case it was an emergency. It was so annoying when there was no one on the other end, a window salesman, or who knows what salesman etc..... The peace and quiet that we now experience from those unwanted phone calls is heavenly. I am not talking about an occasional call. It was daily and more than one. I have shared the information for people to sign up with everyone person that I meet who comment about those annoying calls. They thank me for the information. I have yet to hear of someone who liked those phone calls. THANK YOU INDIANA for helping us rid our phones of these unwanted phone calls.
